Searching for Resources

Once logged in, there are several ways to search for resources. Clicking the Search button in the SAFARI Montage header will bring you to the search window as seen above. Notice the Search variables on the left as well as a panel showing Recent Searches. Search Tips are displayed on the right.

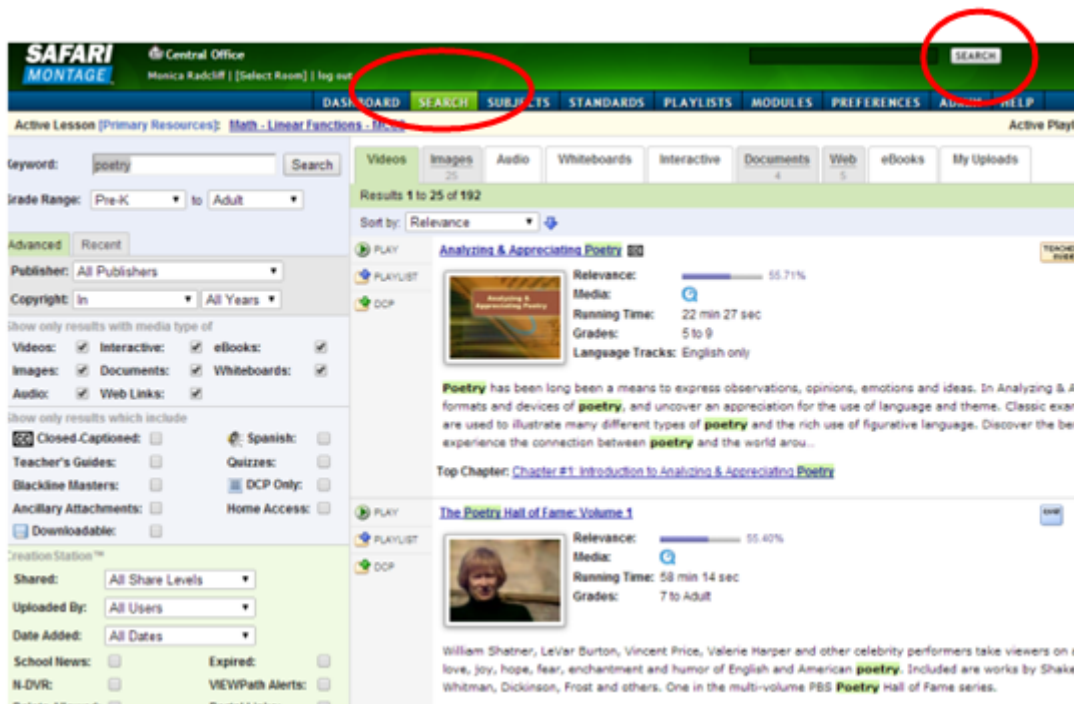

Tips on Searching

Capitalization - Keyword searches are not case-sensitive. Capitalization does not matter. Searching for civil war is the same as searching for the Civil War.

AND Searches - A space between keywords is equivalent to the word 'and'. For example, entering the phrase civil war is like saying, 'Show me all the videos that contain the words civil and war (but not necessarily next to each other).'

Phrase Searches - To search for an exact phrase, enclose the phrase in quotation marks. For example, entering the phrase 'civil war' will display videos that contain the phrase 'civil war' exactly as it appears between the quotes.

Combinations - The above methods can be combined to help refine your results. For example, a phrase search can be combined with a keyword search by entering 'civil war' 'lincoln'. This would display all titles that contain the phrase 'civil war' and the keyword 'lincoln'.

Advanced search allows more control over the search variables. Each Advanced Search option is listed below:

- Publisher - Search for all publishers or by individual publishers.
- Copyright - Search for content based on copyright year.
- Media Types - Used to include or limit the content being searched for on SAFARI Montage. A checked box includes the media type in the search. A non-checked box will remove the media type from the search.
- Show Only if Included - Like Media Types, this function will return searches with content that only include the items marked. Please note that your selections may differ from the selections in the image above. For example, the ability to search for titles with teacher's guides, black line masters, ancillary attachments and quizzes is not available for students.
- Show - Select the number of titles you want to view per page in the search results.

From the critically acclaimed, Emmy Award-winning PBS children's series, Reading Rainbow, this program presents the book by Scieszka. The book takes a zany and hilarious look at how most everything in our lives is math related. In the episode, host scouts out and sneaks up on math-in-action, and finds out why a factory, shipping company or an artist can't work without math. Reading Rainbow programs are designed to encourage children to read by transporting...
